Terms & Conditions (only for participants from IP partner universities!!)

- 1) Reduced registration fee (49 Euros) for Students from IP partner universities (i.e. University of Vienna, Trinity College Dublin, King's College London, University of Lodz).
- 2) Postgraduate and doctoral students from the IP-partner universities are eligible for funding by the DAAD. Scholarships include participation fee, reimbursement of travel expenses, free accommodation and lunch. Before registration, please contact your local coordinator.
- 3) The registration is binding. If you wish to withdraw from the programme later, we will ask you to provide details of at least one new candidate for our consideration.
- 4) You will be required to stay for the whole duration of the programme from 4th through to 16th July 2013. If you arrive later or leave earlier, you will not count as a regular participant and thus not be eligible for funding.
- 5) 90% of your travel costs can be reimbursed upon presentation of all original travel documents. All tickets (boarding cards, train tickets etc.) must be sent to us by post within two weeks after the end of the Summer School. Please note that we will not be able to accept scans or photocopies.
- 6) The IP Summer School does not provide insurance cover for participants. An EU insurance card usually covers the costs of any medical care required; however, e.g. it will not cover transportation back to your home country if needed.

By sending this form back to us, you confirm that you have read the terms & conditions set out above.

We very much look forward to see you here in Mainz!
